Manchester Alma Mater

Life at Manchester High School is an endless march of experiences.

It stands not still for the enchanted nor turns back for the reminiscent.

Thus, on this golden anniversary of Somanhis, we pause momentarily to contemplate our past.

Then, we set our course forward with the intent of capturing the spirit of the present and hope of the future!

Ellen Frederickson and Bridget Blakemore disembark for another day at M.H.S.

Lively footsteps, spring fever, thoughts of a day at M.H.S.

Kathy Schwartz and Nancy Winther, ready for another day.

Enthusiastic freshmen take a short cut to M.H.S.

AT RIGHT: Between classes, Bernadette Packard ponders life at M.H.S.

Thy Precepts E're Shall Guide Us

To take our place among the intelligent peoples of the world, it is necessary that we apply ourselves to our studies.

The goal of Manchester High School is the production of thinking individuals who will uphold the American tradition in a world of growing complexity.

With confidence we meet the future, convinced that the precepts which we have been taught will insure our success.

Marion Verge and Linda Fogarty have book reports due.

Bob Gore applies himself to the study of art.

Learning by helping others.

Philip Bennett and Bob McBride just love English!

"And these are Seniors?" asks
Mr. Thomas.

Diligence is the word for David Moyer.

. . . Onward to Victory!

Athletics at Manchester High School is more than just the noise that the spectators make as they cheer for the goal or touchdown.

Here at M.H.S. athletics means training, physically and emotionally.

Nightly, sportsmen endeavor to build the skill so necessary for victory.

More important, however they learn the true meanings of competition, to accept defeat gracefully as well as enjoy victory with humility.

Lenny Fava shows us a gym class of 50 years ago.

But somebody's got to pitch, Fellas.

John R. Roberts makes it over the hurdle.

"If I had a hammer . . .," sing out Kathy Vennart, Allyson Yanta, and Kent Carlson.

Kenneth Hicks, an efficient member of AVA.

Debbie Starr and Ronald Georgetti decorate the art room.

Cindy Geer, the make-up artist.

Bill Petrone, John Hanley, and Bruce Kingsbury show promise in the art class.

All Hail, All Hail, to Thee.

*Through extra-curricular activities,
students at Manchester High School have the opportunity to enrich themselves and their school.*

*They learn valuable skills through service activities and share their ideas through creative endeavors.
Most important, however, are the friendships that give fuller meaning to our education at M.H.S.*

A picture is worth a thousand words as John Kosak knows.

Student Council . . . Democracy in Action

President Mike Orlowski conducts a Student Council meeting.

Betsy Hyde, Pam Cummings, and Cyndee Flynn commemorate Memorial Day.

My first days in MHS will always be an important episode of my year's stay in the U.S. I was a frightened girl as I went roaming around looking for my rooms during the first week of school, but as days went by I felt as though I had been a part of the school for years. I smiled and talked with the students as if they had been my old friends. To my amazement I found myself able to adjust in a world different from my own. Manchester and my friends will always be a part of me.

My years stay here is the realization of my desire to find out the truth of things I read and heard about the U.S. I underwent happy and sad experiences which I will never forget.

A great distance separates my homeland from Manchester, but through letters, distance will not be a barrier. So I would like to hear from you sometime. My address is 84 Int. 1 Perez Boulevard, Dagupan City, Pangasinan, Philippines; Tel. no. 256-J.

People to People — Long Distance

This is the warm and friendly French family who welcomed me to their homeland, taught me their language, and made me their second daughter for one wonderful AFS summer. As a Frenchgirl-for-a-summer, I discovered a country of varied and surprising beauty, a friendly and affectionate people, and an awareness of age and the past which made me forget that history had ever belonged to musty textbooks. Most important, I became aware that there is so much that people can learn from each other, and so much to learn about other peoples and their ways of life. For this priceless experience I would like to thank all of the people of Manchester and MHS who contributed to AFS.

Merci mille fois; je ne l'oublierai jamais, moi!

Teaching in a Turkish high school for boys this year under the Fulbright Teacher-Exchange Program gave me some new perspectives on life at Manchester High School. First of all, girls are a distinct asset to the morale and extra-curricular life of MHS. Secondly, the fabulous facilities possessed by MHS are not nearly as valuable as its teachers, for good education occurs even in the most meager of quarters.

This year has been a marvelous experience for me in so many ways. My one regret is that I missed seeing my friends in the class of 1965 graduate.

Jay R. Stager

Hi to everyone — Gruess Gott!!

This year at MHS was a very interesting one for me. I enjoyed my stay here very much. Thank you for the nice time I have spent in your school, of which everyone can be proud to be a member. It will be difficult to leave all of my new friends I have made during the school year. It was a wonderful experience for me and I think that we should encourage more young people to join the exchange student program. "How can there be misunderstanding, how can there be wars, if we know each other?"

I would be very glad to hear from you and Manchester, which has become to me like another home. My address is:

As a Sioux Indian in MHS this year, I want all to know that this has been a most exciting experience-filled year in a new school. One of the most surprising things to me was the vast number of students marching through the halls between class periods, and I was especially impressed with the friendliness of MHS students and faculty.

I'd like to thank those who have made my stay here most enjoyable!

Miss Fellows can look back on twenty-eight years of service with SOMANHIS.

Jan Miles and Suzanne Cowles put their skills to good use for SOMANHIS.

"'SOMANHIS EVENTS' has come to us after much delay and hard work but we hope it will now stay with us, making each issue better than the last." These are the opening words of the first issue of SOMANHIS printed by the class of 1916. On this fiftieth anniversary of SOMANHIS, the 1965 staff would like to highlight the history of Manchester High School's yearbook.

The first issue of the SOMANHIS EVENTS was a thin news and literary magazine which was published several times a year at the old South Manchester High School. The magazine received its name from the first letters of the school's name. Miss Fanny Rexford, who later became Mrs. Sidney Wheaton, was the first advisor. In 1922 senior pictures first appeared in the book. When Miss Ione Fellows became advisor in 1933, SOMANHIS became an annual, independent of the literary magazine. After twenty-eight years of service, Miss Fellows retired, turning the advisorship over to Mr. Jay R. Stager. This year, while Mr. Stager is in Turkey, Mrs. LaVerne Kelson is our club advisor.

We would like to express our thanks to all the people who have helped us with the yearbook. Special thanks go to the many people who have made photographic contributions, our advisor Mrs. Kelson, Mr. Ofiara, Mr. Saturnis, and Mr. Pinto of the Manchester Evening Herald, and the Loring Studios.

The 1965 SOMANHIS has come to you after a year of preparation. Many things have changed since our first issue, but the aim, to preserve the present for the future, has remained the same. Here is the 1965 SOMANHIS!

Words and Music
by Niki Asvestas

The days of six-ty five have drawn to a close,
We sing your praises M H S ex- alt-ed may you be.
The guiding light of learning to us you have en- dowed,
Our visions of to- mor-row will make thee e-ver proud.
